

THE KAKEYA NEEDLE PROBLEM FOR RECTIFIABLE SETS

Marianna Csornyei

University of Chicago, USA

csornyei@math.uchicago.edu

We show that the classical results about rotating a line segment in arbitrarily small area, and the existence of a Besicovitch and a Nikodym set hold if we replace the line segment by an arbitrary rectifiable set.

Joint work with Alan Chang.